Company D Private Fatally Injured

Private Peter W. Klein, 19 years old of Norway, member of Company D, Second Maine Infantry, was struck by a freight train and terribly injured while doing guard duty Saturday evening about 8 o'clock on the Elm street bridge, Biddeford. He was dragged a short distance and thrown several feet from the track, severing one leg and causing severe bruises about the head and face. At the Webber hospital surgeons amputated the other limb which was badly mangled. Private Klein died Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock without regaining full consciousness.

The tragedy occurred on the Boston & Maine double track bridge that spans the highway and sidewalk, being nearly one hundred feet long with high trestle work side rails, having no opening or room to escape if a train came.

Patrol this spot, but there were little cossing of trains near this point since the boys had been stationed in Saco, therefore this combination of circumstances apparently had never entered their minds.

Private Klein was aware of the Boston-Portland express and as it approached, was midway along the bridge. He stepped aside when it passed, but failed to notice the west bound freight from Portland on the opposite track bearing down at full speed. So quickly was this accident that the train crew were not aware of anything unusual and continued on their way, unconscious of the tragedy back there in the darkness.

Groans attracted Private George Duhey, who was near the scene, ready to relieve the young infantryman at 8 o'clock. He rushed on the bridge and found the injured soldier in a badly mutilated and unconscious state. Three shots as an emergency call raised the company at the Saco River House where a number of a party were gathered. They made a record run to the spot. Lieut. John Wilson, a brother-in-law, gathered up the unconscious form in his arms and both were hurried to the Webber Hospital where Dr. Richard L. Mayberry and Dr. Charles Johnson applied the necessary medical aid.

It was a long and arduous task, although after the first examination they could offer little hope. Lieut. Wilson remained during the operation and was constantly at the bedside until the end came. At rare intervals Sunday the patient seemed to be coming out of his unconscious state, but apparently realized nothing of his condition.

Two brothers, Israel Klein and Harmon Klein went to Biddeford Sunday morning, but the parents were not high. They returned late in the evening. The military funeral was held at Biddeford Monday afternoon in charge of Company D and many citizens attended. It was surely a sad farewell that the fellow infantrymen gave their departed brother as he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Portland.

THE RED CROSS

Something may be said to explain why everyone in Norway wants to become a member of the Red Cross. We copy a few facts and statements from the May number of the Red Cross magazine:

It is an organization founded to aid in the prevention and alleviation of human suffering in times of war and peace. It is an organization of the People, by the People, for the People. It is a part of your life and your inheritance as an American.

No one has ever told the frightful story of the wounded in the wars of the world. At Solferino in 1859, 30,000 French and Austrian wounded lay in agony for days while the campaign went on.

Because that torture chamber of neglected horrors was seen by a Swiss tourist, the Red Cross now exists.

To escape if a train came. Patrol this spot, but there were little cossing of trains near this point since the boys had been stationed in Saco, therefore this combination of circumstances apparently had never entered their minds.

Private Klein was aware of the Boston-Portland express and as it approached, was midway along the bridge. "IN A BAD WAY"

Many a Norway Reader will feel grateful for this information.

If your back gives out;
Becomes lame, weak or aching;
If urinary troubles set in,
Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Don't delay—use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is good evidence of their worth. Mrs. C. H. Pratt, Myrtle St., South Paris, Me., says: "I suffered everything from sharp, piercing pains extending from my kidneys all through my back. When one of these attacks came on, I couldn't move. I began to have dizzy spells and my head ached terribly. I concluded my kidneys were getting disordered and as Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I got a box. As I used them, these symptoms lessened. I have always kept Doan's Kidney Pills on hand ever since and by taking a few once in a while, I have never had any severe return of the trouble."

OUR HONORED VETERANS

We honor the veterans of the Grand Army For the noble work they've done. And with pride we recall their heroic deeds In the war of sixty-one.

When Abraham Lincoln called men to arms They left homes, children and wives; And for the cause, thousands were sacrificed— 'Twas an awful price to pay.

On those terrible Southern battle fields They were torn by shot and shell; From hunger and thirst and burning heat They endured the torments of hell.

In the roar of battles, 'mid dead and dying, They fought in a bloody sea, Until the glorious cause was won And every slave was free.

But the struggle was fierce, and lasted Four long and ghastly years; At the close the Union was preserved In sacrificial blood and tears.

The reaper Death had gathered a harvest Of husbands, sweethearts and sons; And desolated this fair land of ours Before the war was done.

Sacred to the living are the memories Of those true and gallant braves Who sleep in faded coats of blue In hallowed graves.

Now the birds warble the requiem at twilight In the magnolia scented air, Where the blue eyed boys are resting Free from hatred and warfare.

'Neath the sod under Northern skies Their graves are strewn with flowers On every Decoration Day.

When they are marching by our honored veterans Because they suffered for flag and country When the drum has sounded the last reveille To call them to the other shore, Will have peace for evermore.

Norway, Maine. Mrs. Z. L. Merchant.

THE LITTLE FLAGS

Oh, when you see them flying Beside the summer way— The little flags they are in place Upon Memorial Day— Remember each is crying A message straight to you— A message straight to every lad Whose heart is clean and true.

They tell the splendid story Of those who march'd away In answer to a voice that said, "Your country calls, O boy!" They heard the call to glory, As you can, if you try, "Your country calls, O boy!" Not some time by and by.

Come see these shingles today. We have a wide assortment of building materials awaiting your inspection.

On account of the high cost and the difficulty in getting shipments, we have laid in a stock of the above shingles. They are not any more expensive than the white cedar shingles at present prices and in addition to this, they are FIRE PROOF. This is quite an item.

Oxford Co. Students in Greek Play

The names of three Oxford County students appear in the cast of characters for the seventh annual Greek play, to be presented by the Senior class of Bates College, during commencement week in June.

They are Miss Ella G. Clark of Norway, Sumner M. Davis of South Paris, and Homer E. Crooker of Bryant's Pond.

The Greek play has come to be one of the most important features of Commencement at Bates. The plays are given before the college library. Last year over three thousand persons witnessed the performance of the Senior drama.

The play for this year is to be "Medea", the famous tragedy of Euripides. Besides having a part in the play, Mr. Crooker is also business manager for the performance.

When you've got to walk on the sides of your shoes to get away from those awful corn-pains, there's only one common-sense thing to do.

Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off.

There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It". No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was made.

"Gets-It" does away forever with the use of knives that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toes, and plasters that half do the work. Knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more oozing or cutting.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Norway and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by F. P. Stone, Frank Kimball and the A. L. Clark Drug Co.

The Player Piano, so we are told, is the instrument which "put the tune in opportunity"! At all events, it has opened the door to enjoyment to hundreds and thousands who loved music but were denied the privilege of playing. May has been called "Opportunity's Own Month", for in it we may be happy, we may be contented, we may own a Player Piano—if we only will. Opportunity has again brought the piano into popular favor, because it is now possible, with the Player Piano, to really have music at any time you feel like it. All the family are pianists with the Player Piano in the home!

Come in today and see how great an opportunity is offered you.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS IN GARDENING

Now don't get scared, there's no politics in this. You are not going to get me into any political argument. Not even on woman's rights. I do believe that when it comes to gardening a woman has some rights, even though they may not be enumerated in the constitution of the U. S. A.

To begin with, I believe that every woman has a right to a garden. It is natural to want a garden and to dig in the dirt and watch things grow and pick flowers and vegetables, and especially the woman on the farm. And it shouldn't be a little old, weedy corner next to the hedge but a nice, big, clean place of ground, the best land on the farm, fenced hog and chicken tight and plowed and harrowed by the men folks first thing in the spring. And above all, a woman is entitled to good, first class tools to work the garden with.

Honest now, sister, what kind of tools do you have to work your garden with? Show 'em up.

I know just about the list, anyway, it's an old common hoe, probably rusty and dull, a rake with several teeth broken or bent, and the handle loose, and probably an old butcher knife and maybe a spade that the men wouldn't use to dig post holes with. And you plant the seed by hand in a row made with the corner of the hoe or the end of the rake handle, stooping along and dropping the seeds by hand and then coming along and covering them with your feet. It looked like sin, but it was the only way you could do.

Do your men folks plant and work their corn that way? No, ma'am, they have the best two row edge drop planter and riding cultivator. Several generations ago they used to plant and tend corn with a hoe but men don't put up with that kind of tools very long, at least not in their own work.

They get machines with wheels and seats on them, even if they do have to go in debt for them. But when it comes to paying out fifteen dollars for an up-to-date tool, that will plant easily and perfectly everything in the garden and tend it ten times as easy and quickly as it can be done by hand in old style, why, then he'll holler like a stuck pig, "Can't afford it, all foolishness. Mother never had nothing of that kind, wouldn't work now. A woman don't know nothing about machinery anyhow."

All right, brother, I hope when you get yours in the hereafter, it'll be lumping your back over an old, dull, rusty hoe in a weedy, lumpy, crooked rowed garden, with a sunbonnet on and the thermometer ninety-seven degrees in the shade.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Isabelle A. Piles.

PIGEON HILL.

Oxford Grange, Welchville. Oxford Grange No. 46 met Saturday evening, May 19, Worthy Master Gammon in charge. After routine of business, the Worthy lecturer introduced Miss Catharine N. Platts, Extension Instructor in Home Economics at Orono, to talk on planning of the meals and efficiency in the kitchen.

Miss Platts is thoroughly familiar with the nutritive value of food. She said in part, our body is a human machine and the food we eat supplies us with heat and energy, i. e., carbohydrates and proteins. Food principles which build up and repair body tissues are the proteins, mineral matter and water. All meats, fish, pork, eggs and milk are rich in protein. Mineral water, which is very necessary in helping to regulate and carry on many of the body functions. Iron is a very necessary part of the red corpuscles which carry the oxygen in the blood to all the body cells. Lime is very important in the development and growth of the bones. Vegetable foods as a whole as well as milk and eggs are rich in mineral matter.

Planning the meals is the most perplexing problem which confronts the house maker. The ability of a person to live an efficient life depends to a certain extent upon the food he eats. The farmer has long been studying the question of proper foods for his stock. It is time the housewife should give careful consideration to the food for her family.

Efficiency in the kitchen means saving unnecessary steps and having the sink and work table at a convenient height for the worker. Many other ideas to numerous to mention were advanced and altogether Miss Platts gave a very interesting and instructive talk. The lecturer has obtained valuable leaflets for distribution from Orono, on canning vegetables, fruit and meats, which are helpful.

The next regular meeting will be June 2nd, when the last of the degrees will be conferred on four candidates.

Not much planting done yet, but warm weather is in sight and work will progress fast.

Three new auto houses are going up on the Hill. Chas. Denning, Orin Martin and Rev. R. J. Verrill are building them.

William Hall spent the week-end at his home, Blunden Farm. He is captain of Orono's Academy basketball team and they played Mechanic Falls.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent Saturday, May 19th, at Pinnacle Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Waite, when Mrs. Waite opened her home to the members of the embroidery club to give Mrs. Mary Bumpus a birthday surprise party and was surprised herself by being presented with a Maybasket filled with gifts in honor of her own birthday, May 17th.

A poem was read, composed by Mary D. Hall and Mrs. Bumpus was presented with a basket of greens and she discovered underneath many packages of gifts, also a birthday cake was presented. Coffee and cake were served. Other original poems were read. Mrs. Rose Denning and Mrs. Mary D. Hall were guests.

DRAFT REGISTRATION

Oxford County board for the draft registration named by the Governor: Sheriff Harry D. Cole, Paris, chairman; Clerk of Courts Ernest J. Record, South Paris, clerk; H. L. Bartlett, M. D., Norway, physician.

Every man must register if he has already reached the age of 21 years or will reach that age during the year 1917, and if he has not yet passed his 31st birthday. He must do this even if he is not a citizen; even if he has a wife, children or others dependent upon him for support; even if he is a cripple. He must register in a matter how important a public office he happens to hold or what sort of work he is doing. If he is sick or disabled he must have a competent person take his registration. If he is in jail or State prison, the authorities will register him. If he is a student in a school, he will be given an opportunity to fill up his registration card and mail it to his home town.

The selective draft is an effort to place the largest number of effective soldiers into the field with the least disturbance of American industries and a minimum of suffering to those who are left at home. It is characterized by all the leaders of all the nations as the only way that is fair to everyone.

The working of the selective draft is more easily comprehended if it is divided into three steps. The first step will be taken on Registration Day, when every man between 21 and 30 years of age, including both these ages, must be to the place where voting for city, town and State officers is ordinarily done, and there give his name, address, age, occupation and other information required to the registrar.

After this taking account of stock is completed, the next step, the segregation of the physically unfit, the men with dependents, and the men needed on the farms and in the industries, will be taken. The third and final step will be the calling by the President of the fighting men, in order that they may be properly trained and equipped to care for themselves and strike the most effective blow at the enemy.

Registration Day will probably be declared a special holiday by Governor Miliken.

SOUTH PARIS

Master Clifford Currier, son of Joseph Currier, Pleasant street, celebrated his fifth birthday recently with a party. The following were Clifford's guests, Edward Dean, Ruth Brown, Frances Torrey, Franklin Goldsmith, Priscilla Chase and Hugh Morton, the little folks' mothers were also invited. The dining room table was very prettily decorated with pinks and Mayflowers. Birthday cake decorated with candles and American flags and the place cards around the table were little flags. Helen Morton and Helen Emily served ice cream, assorted cake, fancy crackers, fruit and chocolates. While the little tots were seated around the table Mrs. Currier secured a photograph of the group. Master Clifford has many gifts, among which was a small sized lawn swing from his father and mother.

Company F, boys from Dover, who are doing guard duty here have been vaccinated by Dr. D. M. Stuart. One of the boys was made ill from its effects and the ladies of the Red Cross had moved to Mrs. George Abbott's where he could be cared for. The boys are getting their meals with Mrs. Abbott. Rev. Wm. C. Miller has been interesting the village pupils in agriculture. PREPAREDNESS

Whatever the outcome of the present conflict, it is certain that foodstuffs of all kinds will be in demand and will command a high price. Now is the time to make plans for a larger acreage of all field crops. It is also certain that farm help is to be scarce and very expensive. These things are therefore necessary and vital for the season of 1917.

GOOD FERTILIZERS

FRESH AND RELIABLE SEEDS

IMPROVED FARM MACHINERY

We have now in stock plenty of Bradley's and also Rogers & Hubbard's Fertilizers, of all the best brands, on which we can now make the most favorable prices. Better secure them at once. The materials of which they are composed are going higher every day.

High Grade Field and Garden Seeds are now in store and we are receiving them every day. Some seeds are a little higher than last year, but our Bulk Garden Seeds, Peas and Beans are the best values to be had. Those who buy early will get the best trades.

Everything in Agricultural Machinery we have now in stock at prices far below the present market. Sulky and Swivel Plows, Disk and Spring Tooth Harrows, Clark's Outaway Harrows, Spreaders, Walking and Riding Cultivators, Weeders, Grain Drills, Garden and Hand Drills, Seeders and Hoes and many others. All the above articles that we now have in stock we can sell at prices much lower than we can now buy them.

The comfort and safety of our nation, for the next year, depend on the farmer and on the use that he makes of SEEDS, FERTILIZERS AND IMPLEMENTS.

Here are a few lines from a sister, Mrs. Jennie P. Coffin, in Denver, Colorado, whose only son is Frank Coffin: "My head is so bad today that I can make no attempt to write a letter. Frank left Denver last evening on the 8 o'clock Pullman for Fort Riley, Kansas, where he will remain three months at the training camp, then he expects to cross seas to France. He belongs to the officers reserve corps, cavalry. He received his commission as first lieutenant from the Adjutant General at Washington, the first of the week. LOCAL PICK UPS, ETC.

The fishing season is over working me. Am ching for fish I do not get I was out of the running last season and I started to find my tackle and tools a few days ago I'm fully convinced by the manner they were stowed away I was not expected to use them again. The contents of a bureau in which they were kept was dumped in a trunk and put in the attic. If this was so, a mistake was made as I now am plowing the fresh waters of Maine for fish, but up to date have been poorly rewarded. Truth compels me to admit that I've got only two good sized bass which were returned to the water. They came out of Lake Kooka, Waterford, where the village nestles in the afternoon shade of Mt. Trem and the fields and pastures are green and the good people busy attending growing crops and to the want of summer guests.

Many trout have been taken from the lake and I was led to put a day in after the fish someone had caught, but I had a good time the same.

C. H. Hill of Harrison and Texas was there and reported the catching of three or four or thirty-four the day before, am not just positive. He got one last evening and when I left him he was expecting more.

John F. Freeman, carpenter and fisherman, was here in all his solemn glory applying skill and patience. I saw him land a little one and asked if it was a "bootleg" and he said "no, a trout," but did not hold it up for me to see. John is different. I invited him to dinner with me at the Lake House, but he refused, saying he had a lunch and couldn't spare the time as he had a day's past winter in a camp near Livestock's, from where he came this morning. He made several good catches of pickerel during the late cold spell and barely escaped sending me a good one. All of Bob Seaver and Mrs. I. W. Waite, were on the water, but were soon discouraged and struck for home, Andover and the South Arm, where the ice had just left. He insisted they could immerge a boat load of big ones and it was a waste of energy and time to remain longer on the water and to come to Norway and accordingly they returned to the South Arm in classic style.

Richardson at 5:45 p. m. Darkness came and not a bite or strike. Early morning found them on the water and they fished until past noon Saturday with same result.

Might as well remained at Keoka along with me and saved mileage.

Ernest M. Dudley of the Lake House has been confined indoors for many months, his wife having charge of the hotel. Guy Dudley has charge of a County Club in California, where he has been for several years, and his sister, Anne, is teaching in Woodford, so Mrs. Dudley tells me. The usual number (40) summer visitors are expected at the Lake House this season.

Thirty years ago the Dr. Shattuck Sanatorium was changed to a hotel. Blair & Co. have it two years and E. M. Dudley for the past 28 and that they have kept the wolf from the door and served the public in evidence.

Cad and Lorin Pride are having logs sawed at the Peterville mill and I waved my hands to them and Eugene Pinkham in passing.

A couple of more hours Saturday was devoted to fishing in Lower Stone Pond now known as Keywadin, Indian for Mother and Mrs. Gertrude Libby visited Mrs. Curt Bickford while Walter rowed me over the water and permitted my calling on Kenney C. Gurney, who has been stopping at his camp here for many months past. It has been much improved since my last visit. Kenney entertains and caters to vacation guests, fishermen and others.

Several cottages have been built since my last fishing visit ten years ago. There are nine cottages on the shores of the lake. Prof. O. C. Farrington, curator of the Field Columbian Museum of Chicago; Mr. Record of Amesbury, a shoe dealer; Prof. Earl B. Ferson of Chicago University; "Log Cottage", owned by Mr. Anderson, a shoe manufacturer of Amesbury, Mass.; Mrs. Eggleston of Cleveland, Ohio; J. M. Bartlett and Fred H. Bartlett of East Stoneham. Each have nice cottages here and with Mr. Bickmake the nine. Six of them have been built in the past ten years. Curt Bickford's "Keywadin" is an all the year round affair.

Upper Stone—Lake Victoria—Ernest Jones of Washington, D. C., has a summer home.

There is a dispute over the title to the East Stoneham supposed he owned it and Ernest Bartlett objected, driving the carpenters out and throwing their tools after them. I noticed a hint of cattle feeding in the field and passed Ernest Bartlett manipulating a harrow over an out or up.

Jane Russell lives here no more. Heard her affectionately spoken of as Aunt Jane and her absence lamented. Her post-birthday cards will find her. I'm thinking of having Walter take me there and making a call and thank her for the many beautiful early Mayflowers sent while she was living in East Stoneham.

Col. Albert J. Stearns of Norway City, auto towards Lovell. Should never have wheel. Had cautioned Walter regarding the highway and he didn't look beligerent or ugly.

Was passed on the highway steering an auto towards Lovell. Should never have wheel. Had cautioned Walter regarding the highway and he didn't look beligerent or ugly.

Much land is under the plow and several women were seen working and several didn't run and hide as if ashamed. Mother-hens and chickens with many a house and ducks and geese were seen as well as calves and bleating lambs, but the waters gave not up its fish. Only a pickerel was got, which was fried next day and eaten bones and all.

J. O. Crooker tells me I have a big street than that opposite Longley & Butts store on Main street.

I got back at him by saying my liability is less because there are fewer people passing on Bridge street and that I'll raise the sidewalk up so it will be level by-and-by.

He says he had nothing to do in putting down the sidewalk opposite his store except to pay the town for it; the town established the grade and afterwards saw fit to change it and it is up to the town to fix it and not him.

No doubt he is right, but as he is a wealthy, retired, public spirited man, I suggested he fix it at his personal expense and relieve the town of the necessity of so doing.

He intimates I might do the same on Bridge street and I asked him to wait and see me do it.

I'm to take the wooden bridge out or off, fill in and level up the sidewalk as soon as the condition of water will permit and "Daisy" Downey gets the plans made.

"Sure thing."

No such hummock will long be tolerated on Bridge street town or no town, but of course I'll get "satisfaction" from the Mayor and city engineers and hope the street level will not be changed again during my life.

The senior class and teachers attended a body and were greatly moved because of his tragic death. Flags on private residences and public buildings in town were lowered to half-mast Monday morning, and the community shared the sorrow, coming so suddenly to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Klein and family.

Mrs. Ernest Hutchins entertained the Auction club at Cedarbrook Farm, Thursday evening. The trip was made by auto to and on the arrival of the guests, a fine dinner was served. The place and fairly cards were daintily hand picked at tables, being the handiwork of the May flowers. After dinner, auction was enjoyed until a late hour. Those of the Blair & Co. were present. Mr. and Mrs. Edith Parker, Tessa Chickodeny, Mrs. Irvin K. Moorhouse, Mrs. Harold Allen, Mrs. Edward L. Burnell, Mrs. I. W. White, Mrs. Albion L. Buck, Mrs. George W. Devine, Mrs. True C. NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies."

—Mrs. ROBT. STORIEL, Sage Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice free of charge.

Moses Parsons, who lives on the east side of Pennessesewassee, says, "In 1880 I pulled up with my hands two small elms beside the road and set them out in front of the house where I live. Now they are 5 ft. 11 inches in circumference."

Mr. Parsons is 74 years old, he does not think he is too old to set trees, but has been setting out some elms this spring. * * * This is the place now occupied by F. D. Thurston, who married a granddaughter of Mr. Parsons. Turner G. Hunton, who recently sold his farm at North Norway, has leased the Kenny farm in Auburn. He was prevented from going West by the sickness of his wife. He has recently bought a team and has a very good stepping road home.

MECHANIC FALLS

MAN MISERABLE;

CAN WORK NOW

Wife Tells How Tanlac Worked A Renovation of His System.

"My husband was miserable. He could not work, he had no appetite and food was sickening to him. Now he has a good appetite, sleeps well and works hard."

This statement showing the complete building up of a Mechanic Falls man was made by Mrs. N. P. Morrill of that town. The medicine that brought about the happy change was the famous Tanlac that has been endorsed by so many well known Maine men and women.

Mrs. Morrill's complete story is so interesting it is told in full.

"My husband's stomach was all upset," this Mechanic Falls woman explained. "He had sick headaches and was dizzy and weak. He was in distress most of the time from stomach trouble. His food did not digest."

"Tanlac seems to have completely renovated his system. It has made a new man of him. He has taken five bottles and is still on the gain. I want him to continue this Master Medicine until he feels sure of a permanent cure."

Tanlac now is being specially introduced in Norway at F. P. Stone's drug store. There is a Tanlac agent in every Maine town. Nearby Tanlac agents are South Paris, C. H. Howard; Harrison, Eugene Tenney; Bridgton, F. E. Stevens; Watford, L. R. Rounds; East Watford, R. E. Pinkham; West Paris, S. T. White.

INSTANT ACTION SUR-

PRIZES MANY HERE

This grocer's story surprises local people: "I had bad stomach trouble. All food seemed to sour and form gas. Was always constipated. Nothing helped until I tried buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc. as mixed in Adler-ika. ONE SPOONFUL astonished me with its INSTANT action. Because Adler-ika flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract & relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach, gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. F. P.
